

NATIONAL CONFERENCE
ON
ADVANCES IN BIOLOGICAL SCIENCES (ABS2018)

3rd FEBRUARY 2018

DETAILED REPORT

The department of Botany had organized a National Conference on Advances in Biological Sciences on Saturday, 3rd February 2018. The Chief Guests of the conference was Adv. Rubina A. H. Rizvi, Director of Rizvi Education Society who inaugurated the national conference. Principal Paul Raj gave the Welcome speech and Convenor Dr Nitesh Joshi gave an introduction about the conference. The book of Abstracts was released by the Chief Guest.

Inauguration Ceremony

Participants in Inauguration Ceremony

Adv. Rubina A. H. Rizvi was also one of our resource persons and delivered a talk on “DNA Fingerprinting”. Dr. Ambika Joshi, Chairperson of Ad-hoc Board of Studies in Botany of Mumbai University was the Guest of Honour and Resource person who enlighten the listeners with her talk on “Biological Warfare at Vietnam”. Dr. Nivedita Ghayal from Abasaheb Garware College, Pune shared her deep knowledge on Allelopathy.

Talks by Resource Persons

There were more than 150 participants who presented their research work on posters. The poster display session was categorized into 10 technical sessions and were chaired by various experts in the field. The sessions were listed as follows:

1. Environmental Biology UG
2. Environmental Biology PG
3. Medicinal Botany UG
4. Medicinal Botany PG
5. Biotechnology UG
6. Biotechnology PG
7. Remedial Measures to solve Environmental Issues UG
8. Remedial Measures to solve Environmental Issues PG

9. Animal and Plant Physiology UG
10. Animal and Plant Physiology PG

Poster Presentations and Valedictory function

In valedictory function, the Best Papers were awarded with trophies whereas certificates were given to all the participants. Vote of thanks was given by Dr. Alkama G. Faqih. The conference was well received by all and there were healthy deliberations amongst the researchers.

